OPPOSITION TO EMERGENCY MOTION FOR INTERIM INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

COMES NOW defendant State of Alaska, Department of Corrections, by and through Assistant Attorney General John K. Bodick and hereby opposes petitioner Etta Bavilla's emergency motion for interim injunctive relief. In this motion, Bavilla asks this court to enjoin the Department of Corrections "from forcibly medicating her with psychotropic drugs without following minimum due process standards." The Department considered Bavilla's medication needs at a hearing at 8:30 a.m. on Monday, April 5, 2004 and determined that involuntary medication was not necessary at this time. Thus, there is no need for the emergency interim injunctive relief Bavilla seeks and her motion should be denied.

Dated this 5 day of April, 2004, at Anchorage, Alaska.
